

Business Of Bed and Breakfast

Bed and Breakfast is also known as B&B and it offers accommodation and breakfast. Bed and Breakfast does not offer any other meal. This term was originated in United Kingdom but now it is used all over the world. There are less than 10 bedrooms in a typical Bed and Breakfast. These accommodations are used for the commercial purpose.

Bed and Breakfast accommodations offer cheap services because the owners design these houses very simply to keep their costs low. The guests are generally accommodated in the private rooms and there are private bathrooms in each room. There are some accommodations in which there is a private bedroom with a bathroom but the bathroom is usually shared between the guests. Private rooms of Bed and Breakfasts are not luxurious rooms but they are designed to provide maximum comfort to the people. Only breakfast is served in these private homes and breakfast is usually served in the bedroom, dining room or in the kitchen of the host.

Bed and Breakfast has become a primary business for the people but some individuals are also running it as a secondary source of income. In many Bed and Breakfasts the owner or the runner of the business does maximum of the work on his own like cleaning of the rooms and cooking etc. In relatively large Bed and Breakfasts professional staff for cleaning and cooking is hired. The difference between the large Guest house or Small Hotel and Bed and Breakfast is that there is no highly professional management at Bed and Breakfast. In these guests rooms high standards of services are not offered therefore, Bed and Breakfasts are usually considered as the tertiary business.

There are various ideas which have been introduced in Bed and Breakfasts like floating Bed and Breakfast. The first Floating Bed and Breakfast was introduced in Seattle Washington.

These small guest houses are made in a boat or houseboat and Bed and Breakfast services are offered there. Although Bed and Breakfasts are available all over the world but their services can vary on the basis of the national differences.

Similarly the rules and regulations of Bed and Breakfast also vary in each national jurisdiction. The common regulation that is followed in all Bed and Breakfasts is safety. According to regulations, Bed and Breakfasts should have proper rooms, bathrooms, proper fire escape plan in space and smoking detectors in all of the rooms. This shows that all necessities are usually offered in Bed and Breakfasts.

Therefore, we can say that Bed and Breakfasts provide the best options to the travelers who cannot afford the high rates of the hotels and Inns.
