If you are a website publisher, your sales potential can go through the roof if you can drive more traffic to your website. If you decide to hire a professional Seo expert because you do not know how it is done, you will find it can be really expensive.

Fortunately, there are a few, little known SEO techniques that you can use on your own and get really good results. The first thing to do is to establish a lot of back links to get noticed on the internet. Find other websites with other businesses like yours that you can exchange links with and benefit from other website traffic.

Trading links is a really cost effective SEO technique and most other website publishers will be happy to do this. Make sure you exchange links with similar types of businesses that have the same type of product that you have. You will really be astonished at how effective this method is in getting more traffic to your site.

Either purchase articles or write your own and have them published on article directory websites. This will guarantee that your website visibility will be optimized. Make your articles useful and relevant. Put several articles on your own site too.

Pick a unique domain name and register it to get it indexed on google. Let your imagination run wild with ideas for your domain name. Look your site over and make sure it is easy to navigate. Guard against any frustrated customers who will just leave your site before they buy anything because they can not use it properly or easily.

Keep writing or buying articles on a frequent basis and have them published. If you can not write articles or find that you are really bad at writing, you can hire a writer to do this for you. You should keep abreast of the latest techniques that are being used for search engine optimization that is being talked about in the forums.

Affiliate marketers use these SEO tactics quite frequently. Increasing profits is free and easy if you use these low cost or free methods of optimizing your website and they will allow you to compete with the big guys in e commerce who can afford to hire it done by professional SEO companies.
